Along with a partner book for K-1 etc. Chasing Secrets by Jennifer Choldenko was one that rose to the top based on the desired character themes.

Vote: unanimous vote to approve Chasing Secrets.

Barnes & Noble fundraiser may be incorporated in for Sierra View.

New Business

School lunch schedule change questions came with students playing prior to eating this year . Mele Benz responded with research from studies on kids playing first & eating second. This year it has been a new transition based on the other changes with sixth grade being moved & kindergarten being extended. A survey will be given to students, staff and parents after the first trimester. A variety of positive & feedback has been shared and it will all be taken into consideration. "Noon league" inter mural sports may also be incorporated into the recess portion of lunch to break up lunch lines etc. we hope to roll this out soon.

There isn't budget for any extra additional yard duty

Crossing Guard - Leanna Glander will follow up on requesting VIPS for crossing guards.

Fall Festival & Principal report.

Member feedback - The parking spot did not seem very popular this year.

Mele- $3500 was raised for the technology fund during the penny wars.

Mele- $25,000 jog a thon, $8,000 goes to outdoor education the remainder goes to the PTA.
